SILVER SOLD AT 62.

Still Another Drop in the Price of the White Metal.

Market Railled and Closed at Mine in Colorado and Smelters Elsewhere Stop Business.

If half the bear stories that are in circulation in Wall street this morning are true there soon will not be a single silver mine in the world which will be able to mine the white metal at a profit, it prices continue to decline as rapidly as they have during the past two or three days.

This morning the market took an other downward plunge, and within half an hour after the Stock Exchange pened the quotation price of silver was 2. Sales of 15,000 ounces were made at that figure.

This represents a drop of 6 1-2 cents an ounce since the closing price of yesterday.

The market seems here to be thoroughly demoralized, and no one can tell where it will stop. The decline was started by the drop in London quotations, which is the chief silver market of the world.

The early cables reported that bar silver was selling there at 21 1-2d. per ounce, a decline of 2 1-2d. from yesterday's selling price.
The first sale of silver in the New York market to-day was made at 66 cents, showing a decline of 3 1-2 cents from yesterday. Sales of 10,000 ounces were made at that figure. The next sale was 10,000 ounces at 64, followed by 65,000 ounces at 63 1-2, and then came the sale reported above at 62.

Later in the day a reaction set in, and silver was quoted at 65.

Although the transactions were comparatively small, the extreme weakness of the market was shown by the rapid decline which followed each sale. Deal-ers in bullion seemed to be willing to take almost anything they could get for their silver, and it was evident that holders had been very badly bitten.

A few days ago no one would have believed that silver could go below 70 cents an ounce, and now there is not a single expert to be found who will venture to assert that he can see the bottom of the pitfall into which the market has apparently tumbled. A special despatch from Omaha this rning reports that the big smelting and refining works in that city, which handles more silver than all the Denver smelters combined, will probably close in a few days on account of the decline in silver.

The news received from Denver toand complete suspension of production in that mining district.

A conference of silver-mine owners rom Colorado, Montana, Nevada and Utah has been called for this afternoon at Denver, when the situation will be discussed, and in view of the further drop in prices to-day, it is believed the cision will be unanimous in favor of closing the mines.

It is said that it would be simply ruinous to go on with production under the existing conditions.

There are 14,000 mines in Colorado alone and between 4,000 and 5,000 men employed by the smelters.

A proposition was to be considered today at the conference in Denver to reduce the wages of all employees 33 1-3 per cent, until the market should be-come settled, but it is hardly probable, according to the views of those insuch a proposition will now find favor.

The Denver smelters are said to have has not yet been marketed, and the drop in prices during the last four days has put them $500,000 out of pocket on their smelters in every part of the country to their agents to purchase no more ver ores on account of the low price of City, the reports this morning say that Standard and Union mines. Campbell the continued fall in the price of silver thinks all but half a dozen at the most has created general consternation.

Interest for a Time.

WALL STREET, Thursday, June 29 .-With money lending at an enormous rate of interest and silver dropping rapidly towards zero, it was no w that the opening dealings at the Stock Exchange were characterized by great depression.

Some heavy declines were recorded.

and the dealings were attended with considerable excitement for a time. Subsequently there was a raily of 1-2 to 21-8 from the lowest, Rock Island, to 21-8 from the lowest, Rock Island, Manhattan and Denver preferred leading the upward turn.

Speculation also became quieter, and some stocks were positively dull.

Money lent at 3-16 per diem and interest, and accordingly sterling exchange rates took another drop. If the transactions had been sufficiently large gold imports from Europe would have been announced, but the demand for exchange was extremely limited.

Bankers 60-day bills ranged all the way from 4.80 to 4.81, and sight from 1.82 to 4.83. Commercial sold at 4.78 a pletely demoralized.

Stocks were weakened again.

lowest of the morning. Many operators when they found that they could secure round amounts of money bought back stocks which they had sold earlier in the day. At the close there was a stocks which they had sold earlier in the day. At the close there was a slight reaction.

H. P. Frothingham loaned nearly 13,-500,000 on the floor of the Stock Exchange, of which $3,000,000 was placed at 1-8 per cent, and interest. The money was loaned for the account of various banks. Moore & Schley loaned $2,000,000, and Demorest $1,250,000. The rates for call loans during the afternoon ranged from 5 to 10 per cent. Final transactions were at 6.

Posted rates of exchange were reduced to 4.82 and 4.84. Sight drafts sold as low as 4.82 1-4. On the relaxation in the rates for money there was a rally, and sight sold at 4.82 3-4.

In Boston 11,300,000 Clearing-House loan certificates were issued to-day.

The total sales to-day were 258,300 shares of stocks and 275,000 ounces of silver. In the unlisted department 18,700 shares of Sugar and 3,900 Lead were traded in.
